6. [] Met with Senator Thomas J. Dodd and showed him a copy of the J. Edgar Hoover letter to the Director on the subject of the Consular Convention. The Senator said he would make arrangements to see Mr. Hoover tomorrow or Monday. I also told the Senator that the Director is making arrangements to see the senators who expressed a minority view on the Foreign Relations Committee report. In this connection, the Senator mentioned Senator Mundt's name several times as well as Lausche and Hickenlooper. He said he would also see these senators after the Director had had an opportunity to talk with them. 25X1
